

Honorable Joel T. Broyhill
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Broyhill:

Thank you for your letter of 19 October 1959 regarding [redacted]

Since receiving your letter I have carefully reviewed the recommendations of the Director of Personnel concerning [redacted] giving due weight to his years of Government service, his record with the Agency, and his own statements. It is my conclusion that he is not suited for continued work in this Agency and therefore termination of his employment is in the interest of the United States. [redacted] will be permitted to remain on our rolls not less than 30 days from the date he is notified of my decision.

I appreciate your writing in [redacted] behalf and I can assure you that my action has been taken only after serious consideration of the needs and best interests of the Agency and of [redacted]

Sincerely,

OD/Pers [redacted] (27 Oct 59)

Dear Mr. Broyhill:

Thank you for your letter of 19 October 1959
regarding [redacted]

[redacted] service with the Agency has been under review by senior officials and their findings and conclusions, together with his presentation of his record, will be submitted for my consideration and decision regarding his continued employment with us. I appreciate your writing in his behalf and can assure you that my action will be taken only after serious and sober deliberation of the needs and best interests of the Agency and of [redacted]

I shall be glad to advise you further when I have completed my review of this case.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I am very much interested in a close friend of mine, [redacted]
[redacted] who is presently employed by the Central Intelligence Agency.

I would appreciate it if you would advise me as to what his present status of employment is with you and what the possibilities are in his being retained by the CIA. As a friend and neighbor, I would like to be of assistance to him in every way possible, and he advises me that he has had oral indication of adverse action by the Agency.

In reviewing his background and qualifications, it would seem rather ironical that a person of such talents would no longer be of service to your agency, and I do hope and trust that you will not permit your agency to take adverse action that would deny his services to the Central Intelligence Agency.

I would appreciate any report you could give me concerning this matter.

Thanking you, and with best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Joel T. Broyhill, M. C.
